

Be a Super Troop AND EARN A PATCH!

According to girl and parent feedback, the most successful Girl Scout troops have lots of variety in their Girl Scout experience! Aim to include as many of these activities in your calendar plan for the year. Ask the parents in the troop to pick one activity they can help you organize.

Earn your free patch when you complete the nine elements of a Super Troop year and complete this survey at gsnw.gl/supertroopsurvey by July 31. Your stories are important to us and we want to hear from you. Oh, and we love pictures - share those too! gsnw.gl/shareyoursuccess

 Four badges or other earned awards	 One field trip into the community, out of the troop meeting room	 One overnight (Brownies and up)	 One service project or Take Action project	 One outdoor outing
 One cookie kick-off event and participation in cookie sales	 One parent meeting or one family event	 One STEM activity	 One Girl Scout tradition (celebrate a Girl Scout holiday, host a ceremony, etc.)

Girl Scouts is girl-led, so our volunteers help girls make decisions about where they go and what they do. We can help - see our list of council-hosted events that help girls explore the community while earning badges and Journeys at gsnwg.org/activities.
