March 8 – Sunday: Girl Scout Sunday
Are you involved in a Faith Community? If so, make a connection!

- Wear your uniform to services.
- Ask your congregation to invite all Girl Scouts to come forward to be recognized.
- Assist in the service through ushering, offering collection, or music.
- Host an information booth or meeting about how other girls in your congregation can join.
- Ask your place of worship if you can put the Girl Scout Sunday insert into the weekly bulletin.
- Earn the My Promise, My Faith Pin! Check out the requirements here: gsnw.gl/MyPromiseMyFaith
- Hold a cookie booth after services.

March 9 – Monday: Service to Others
Make a difference in your community and help others!

- Organize a food or clothing drive, or find items at home to donate.
- Have a random acts of kindness day. Can your troop complete 108 acts of kindness?
- Make baked goods to donate to firefighters or police.
- Learn more about the Bronze, Silver, and Gold awards, and brainstorm your own project ideas.
- Give in Honor of a Girl Scout. Consider a $10 donation in honor of a special Girl Scout for Girl Scout week! Each honored Girl Scout will receive a certificate and know that the gift will help other Girl Scouts just like her. Your gift supports Family Partnership, which helps cover the cost of camp sessions, events and troop membership for girls in need. gsnw.gl/InHonor

March 10 – Tuesday: Save the Planet!
For Girl Scouts, every day is Earth Day!

- Go on a walk and observe nature.
- Brainstorm with your family, to find ways to reduce your carbon footprint at home.
- Have a meatless meal day.
- Clean up your school yard or park.
- Check out Pinterest for nature project ideas. Make a bird feeder or bee house!
- Connect with nature! Register for camp today.
MARCH 11 – WEDNESDAY: SHARE THE GIRL SCOUT MESSAGE!
Help Spread the Word!
• Ask your parents to share your Girl Scout story on social media.
• Ask if you can say the Promise and Law on your school announcements.
• Write a letter to the editor or story about your Girl Scout experience for your local or school newspaper.
• Create a Girl Scout display or bulletin board at school or a local library.
• Invite a friend to join Girl Scouts.

MARCH 12 – THURSDAY: GIRL SCOUT’S OFFICIAL BIRTHDAY
Party like it’s 1912! Celebrate Girl Scouts historic founding.
• Wear your Girl Scout uniform or Girl Scout gear to school or work. Post it on Facebook with the hashtag #GSnwglBirthday and be entered to win fun prizes!
• Bring a Girl Scout cake or cupcakes to share at school or work.
• Make birthday cards for a local nursing home or hospital to give to residents.
• Learn more about Juliette Gordon Lowe and Girl Scout History.
• Make Birthday SWAPS to trade with another troop.
• Hold a Girl Scout Birthday Party. Celebrate with birthday cake, party games, and more. Invite your sister Girl Scouts and friends who are not yet Girl Scouts. Ask all of your guests to bring a birthday gift to donate to a local charity.

MARCH 13 – FRIDAY: CIVIC ACTION
Girl Scouts have a long history of civic leadership!
• Ask to speak at a City Council or School Board meeting about the importance of Girl Scouts, or about a community issue that is important to you.
• Check out these new Civic Action tools for girls from GSUSA. gsnw.gl/CivicAction
• Ask your mayor to issue a proclamation making it officially Girl Scout week in your community.
• Interview a female elected official and find out how you can run for office.

MARCH 14 – SATURDAY: FAMILY FOCUS
*This is also known as Girl Scout Sabbath, for faith communities who worship on Saturdays.
Families are an important part of Girl Scouts, too!
• Do a household chore without being asked.
• Prepare a special meal for your family and earn the Legacy Cooking Badge!
• Make a card for each family member, telling them what you appreciate about them.
• Organize a Family Game night.
